COVID-19 CONTINGENCY PLAN

3rd CfC of the 17th EuroVR International Conference, EuroVR 2020

In case a physical attendance of the conference will not be feasible due to Covid-19, we will publish all accepted papers as stated above, and EuroVR 2020 will be held as a virtual conference that will allow all authors to deliver remote presentations of their work.

In case the physical conference is possible, we encourage oral presentations with physical presence at the conference venue.

However, if some of you are unable to attend the conference due to personal issues related to Covid-19 (individual medical reason or national regulatory restrictions clearly justified), but still wish to have your paper presented and published, we will offer remote presentations for your convenience.

For virtual conference and remote presentations, technical details as specific registrations fees will be provided in due time on the website.
